North Central Ohio Slapped By High Winds

Cities Blacked Out, Trees Toppled by Severe Thunderstorms

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Violent thunderstorms, packing winds up to 75 miles per hour, landed a one-two punch on central and northern Ohio Thursday night, blacking out cities for hours and toppling trees, phone and power lines, roofs, TV antennas, house trailers and an outdoor movie screen.

Some injuries were reported. In Marion, a child was hit by a falling tree limb and hospitalized. In Toledo, a 3-week-old baby girl was treated for abrasions after the family house trailer was blown over.

Another house trailer, 54 feet long, was being towed on the Toledo - Detroit Expressway, just north of the Ohio Turnpike, when heavy winds upset it. No one was hurt in that accident.

But minor injuries were reported as a result of six house trailers overturning at the Norton Trailer Home Court along Ohio 90 in Trumbull County. The Highway Patrol said four trailers were demolished and two damaged.

At Marion, the museum-converted home of the late President Warren G. Harding was smashed by a falling tree.

Power failures were reported at Marion, Mount Vernon, Oregon (Toledo suburb), Worthington and Westerville (Columbus suburbs), Akron, Greater Cleveland and at Kent State University where a sports banquet was thrown into darkness.

At Mount Vernon, a 40-by-50-foot roof sailed off the four-story B.F. Goodrich store and landed smack in the middle of South Main Street in the business district. It missed cars and pedestrians, however. The store's top floor. Used for storing merchandise like TV and hi-fi sets, got rain-soaked.

Other places unroofed included the Oregon municipal building and the Frazier Manufacturing Co., a Marion plastics firm.

Windows were blown out in some homes and businesses in Toledo, racked by wind gusts up to 75 m.p.h.

The screen of the Howland Drive-In Theater near Warren was bowled over but no one was reported injured. Several billboards toppled in Cuyahoga Falls.

Trees and phone lines were downed in Marion, Mount Gilead, Loudonville, Toledo, Mount Vernon, Fredericktown, Worthington, Westerville, Akron, Tallmadge and Medina, among other places.

Some of the falling trees blocked major arteries like U.S. 23 north of Worthington.

Streets were flooded in Tallmadge, outside Akron, and Ravenna.

Pea-sized hail accompanied the storm. But tornadoes, which the Weather Bureau said were possible, never materialized.

Man Is Rescued From Lofty Perch

NEW YORK (AP)—Thousands of New Yorkers witnessed a skyscraper drama as police worked to rescue a man from atop a huge electric sign on the roof of the 32-story Hotel Manhattan Thursday night.

The man, an unemployed hotel houseman, walked back and forth atop the 80-foot sign. Passers-by looking up could see him and policemen silhouetted against the glow of lights.

Police finally got close enough to slap handcuffs on him and bring him to safety.

Taken to a hospital for observation, he identified himself as Sam Matosin, 26, of Hoboken, N.J. He said he is the father of five and has been unable to find a job.

De Gaulle Parley Leaves Kennedy Hopeful, Confident

PARIS (AP)—President Kennedy said today he was concluding his three-day policy conference with French President Charles De Gaulle with a feeling "of confidence and hope."

Speaking at a press luncheon, the U.S. chief executive said the most striking impression he would carry from France was of the vitality and dynamism of the French people.

He said he was very happy to express publicly his appreciation of De Gaulle's qualities of leadership.

Referring to specific policy issues of the cold war, Kennedy declared the United States still hopes to reach agreement with the Soviet Union in Geneva on a treaty banning nuclear weapons tests.

Kennedy also praised Britain and France for their "wise and sympathetic policies" toward the newly independent countries which were their former colonies. He

Dominica Buries Slain Dictator

Trujillo's Playboy Son To Command Military

CIUDAD TRUJILLO, Dominican Republic (AP)—Generalissimo Rafael Leonidas Trujillo was paid the tribute accorded heroes today.

His playboy son, Gen. Rafael Trujillo Jr., became the commander in chief of the 25,000-man armed forces of the Dominican Republic, the backbone of his father's absolute rule for 31 years.

Rafael Jr., 32—made a brigadier general at the age of 9 by his proud father—was appointed Thursday night by President Joaquin Balaguer and other government chiefs who served as front men for the generalissimo.

Young Trujillo's first job in preserving the family rule is to hunt down the small band of assassins led by a retired army general who ambushed the dictator Tuesday night as he was being driven from Ciudad Trujillo to his country estate. The elder Trujillo, 69, fell fighting with revolver in hand, a communique said.

The dictator was to take his last ride today from this capital city, whose ancient name of Santo Domingo he changed to memorialize himself.

The body lay in state in his luxurious home in the capital during the night, then was moved to the lobby of the National Palace stacked with flowers.

The burial will be in San Cristobal, 18 miles away where Trujillo was born and worked in a mill before embarking on his military path to power and vast riches.

Archbishop Octavio Bera, ranking prelate of the Roman Catholic Church with which Trujillo fought in recent years, was to officiate at the services.

The nation of almost three million was outwardly calm; the news of the slaying had brought little show of shock. A few steel-helmeted infantrymen stood at street corners but otherwise there were no signs of unusual police or army activity.

The government—its outward composition unchanged because the generalissimo held no formal position in it—quickly pledged to carry on the domestic and foreign policies of the slain leader, especially "aid to the western democracies" and anti-Communist policies.

Miller Is Choice As GOP Chairman

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. William E. Miller of New York, today was unanimously elected chairman of the Republican National Committee.

Miller, generally regarded as a middle-of-the-road Republican, succeeds Sen. Thurston B. Morton of Kentucky who resigned to allow himself more time to campaign for re-election to the Senate next Miller, 47, is the party's 43rd chairman, and the second Roman Catholic to serve in the post since the GOP was organized in 1856. The first Catholic chairman was Thomas H. Carter of Montana, in 1892-96.

Miller supported former Vice President Richard M. Nixon for the GOP presidential nomination last year, but says he is neutral on a 1964 candidate.

said these British and French policies have strengthened the free world.

The time has now come, Kennedy said, for the free world to unite more closely than ever to fight misery in those portions of the world—"the southern half of the globe"—where "liberty is under pressure."

Kennedy said he expects to discuss the Berlin question in Vienna Saturday and Sunday with Premier Khrushchev and declared he and De Gaulle were agreed that Western rights in Berlin must not be altered by force.

The President declared it must be made clear—presumably he meant made clear to Khrushchev—that "we are determined" to resist aggression to whatever force might be necessary.

In a speech earlier in the day the President said the United States is determined to strengthen its forces in Europe to guard the freedom of this part of the world.

"The United States of America intends to bear its full part," Kennedy told several hundred officers and civilians standing in the rain outside NATO military headquarters (SHAPE) just outside Paris.

Referring to U.S. participation in the two world wars and in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, the President said the United States three times in this century had demonstrated that its own security "must inevitably be linked with the security of a free Europe."

"We are determined to maintain and strengthen the forces we now have stretched across Europe to defend this part of the world, whose security affects the security of our own country," Kennedy declared.

Kennedy visited the headquarters of U.S. Gen. Lauris Norstad, NATO's supreme commander, before his concluding talks with De Gaulle.

De Gaulle and Kennedy talked for an hour and five minutes then for the first time in their series of conferences were joined by top aides.

Joining the meeting were Secretary of State Dean Rusk, who arrived this morning from Washington; Soviet Affairs expert Charles Bohlen and Foy Kohler of the State Department; James M. Gavin, the U. S. ambassador to France; French Premier Michel Debre; Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville and other high-ranking French advisers.

Soviet Space Program Chief Dies at 59

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union today announced the sudden death of the political chief of its space program, Deputy Premier Mikhail Khronichev. He was 59.

The announcement by the Soviet news agency Tass did not give the cause of death.

Tass said Khronichev died suddenly during the night. He was listed among the Soviet leaders who attended a reception for a visiting Somali government delegation in the Kremlin Thursday night.

Khronichev was appointed to the space chief post April 8 and made a deputy premier. He was little known in the West.

Khronichev worked as a messenger and a blacksmith's assistant until he joined the Red army in 1920. His army career boomed and by 1937 he was director of all Soviet war plants.

He continued administrative work in aviation and military supplies during World War II with the rank of lieutenant general.

By 1952 he was a member of the Communist party central committee.

He was a deputy premier during 1955-56, left that post to take on an important planning job—deputy chairman of the state economic commission—and became aviation minister in 1957.

He held seven orders of Lenin, two Stalin prizes and had the title Hero of Socialist Labor.

Truman Says Eisenhower Is Wrong about 1964

NEW YORK (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman said today former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's speech Thursday night in Washington was "just a Republican speech."

Asked about Eisenhower's prediction that Republicans would win the presidency in 1964, Truman replied "He'll be fooled."

New Congress District OK'd In House Vote

Senate, Governor Approval Needed for Creation of Area

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's 24th congressional district appeared to be in the making today in southwestern Ohio.

The new district—which would be made up of Butler County from the 3rd District, Warren County from the 7th and Clermont County from the 6th—was approved Thursday on a 98-33 vote in the Republican-controlled Ohio House.

It would solve a serious overpopulation situation in the present 3rd District made up of Montgomery and Butler counties, but would leave untouched the overpopulation problems in the 12th District (Columbus), 14th District (Akron), and the 11th District in extreme northeastern Ohio.

Ohio became eligible for a 24th member in the U.S. House on the basis of a population increase shown by the 1960 census.

The new district, if the bill creating it should pass the Senate and receive what appears to be the unlikely approval of Democratic Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, would have a population of about 345,000, nearly 70,000 below the size of the "ideal" district.

In a normal political year, it would be Republican. The measure is sponsored by Reps. Charles H. Jones and Walter E. Powell, Butler County Republicans. House gags started an avalanche around the floor to start a "Jones-for-Congress" campaign fund. He often has been mentioned as a possible candidate should the bill become law.

In other legislative actions: The House passed and sent to the Senate with only minor dissent an extensive revision of laws covering treatment and care of mental patients to "modernize and humanize" the statutes, sponsors said. The principal aims: to provide more frequent examination of patients in hospitals; extend voluntary admissions to 18-year-olds and give courts greater discretion in use of medical testimony on commitments.

The Senate completed legislative action on a bill listing dangerous drugs which permits them to be sold only on a doctor's prescription.

The House defeated three measures to: Eliminate use of meter impressions or stamps on beer bottle caps or can lids.

Cut the per-case discount from 80 cents to 60 cents on cigarette taxes paid by dealers.

Provide disability compensation for civil defense workers.

It had been estimated the cigarette and beer tax measures would save the state $2 million a year.

House Finance Committee Chairman Ralph E. Fisher, R-Wayne, introduced in the House "by request" the governor's $119.8 million additions and betterments bill providing for state buildings in the next two years. He introduced the measure with the comment that it would spend $76 million more than the state treasury has in sight for such purposes.

Two major amendments were tossed in the direction of the redistricting bill before it passed the House.

One was designed to cut the southern part of Trumbull County off the 19th District otherwise composed only of Mahoning County. The proposal by Rep. Thomas J. Barrett, D-Mahoning, would have put all of Trumbull County in northeastern Ohio's 11th District. The proposal lost by a vote of 50 yes to 88 no.

The other amendment would have removed Medina County from the 14th District with Summit County (Akron) and placed it in the 13th District with Sandusky, Erie, Huron and Lorain counties.

The proposal offered by Rep. Thomas L. Thomas, D-Summit, lost by a 43 yes-88 no vote.

Pacifist Sentenced For Pestering Sub

DUNOON, Scotland (AP)—An English pacifist was sentenced today to 60 days in jail for interfering with the operation of the U.S. missile submarine base in Holy Loch. The demonstrators have been pestering the base for weeks.

The defendant was Terry Chandler, 20, of London. He admitted to court that he tried to obstruct the arrival of a section of floating dock. A British naval vessel plucked him out of a kayak as he paddled toward the section. He was charged with a breach of the peace.

Heil, a textile salesman, disregarded 196 traffic summonses.

Tragedy in Instant Mars Bright New Start in Life

PRATT, Kan. (AP)—Dr. Zane Gard's bright new start in life, after nine years of scrimping through school, turned to tragedy in an instant Thursday night. A big truck smashed into a station wagon carrying his wife and their five children.

Mrs. Gard was killed, along with two of the children and her father, Herbert Weseman of Mountain View, Calif. The other three children were hurt but in satisfactory condition. Three men in the big tractor-trailer truck were treated for shock, cuts and bruises.

Dr. Gard received his degree Wednesday night from the Kansas City College of Osteopathy. He and his family and his wife's parents set out about noon Thursday for Phoenix, Ariz., where he was to begin an internship at the Phoenix General Hospital.

Dr. Gard drove the station wagon to 268 miles from Kansas City to Pratt, pulling a four-wheeled trailer loaded with household goods. He developed a headache. Weseman took the wheel of the station wagon. Dr. Gard shifted to a car carrying Mrs. Weseman and another Mountain View couple, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Mast.

About five miles west of Pratt on U.S. 54, the trailer started whipping crazily behind the station wagon. Investigators said gusty winds may have caused it to jerk the station wagon across the highway into the path of the truck.

Dr. Gard rushed to the wreck-age and picked his way from one to another of his loved ones. Becky, 4, died in his arms. Mrs.

Gard, Larry, 11, and Weseman were dead in a few moments. Mrs. Gard was 28, her father 57.

Zane and Yvonne Gard were married 12 years ago when they were 16 and moved from California to Kansas City about 1955. Zane drove cabs and worked at other jobs while he studied at the University of Kansas City and the College of Osteopathy.

3 Laotian Princes Due For Parley

GENEVA (AP)—The head of the pro-Western Laotian government agreed today to meet the other two princes heading his nation's two Communist-supported factions, raising some hope of a break in the deadlocked negotiations here and in Laos.

A spokesman for the royal government said Prince Boun Oum, the premier of the Vientiane regime, had accepted Prince Souvanna Phouma's invitation to a conference with him and his half-brother, Prince Souphanouvong.

Souvanna Phouma calls himself a neutralist but is recognized by the Communist bloc as the premier of Laos. Souphanouvong heads the pro-Communist Pathet Lao rebels.

Boun Oum's spokesman here said no date or place for the conference had been fixed and that Geneva or Nice, on the French Riviera, had been suggested.

The East-West conference on Laos here in Geneva and negotiations in Laos between the Vientiane government and the Communist-backed factions are both deadlocked over what to negotiate on first.

In Geneva, the West is insisting that new instructions be sent the international truce commission in Laos to enable it to stop rebel attacks that have continued on Vientiane forces, particularly resistance pockets scattered through territory that is nominally controlled by the rebels.

11 Oil Firms Handed Fines

U.S. Court Returns Price-Fix Convictions

HAMMOND, Ind. (AP) — Fines totaling $425,000 on a federal charge of gasoline price fixing were imposed Thursday on 11 major oil firms, four of which announced immediately they would appeal.

Federal Judge Luther M. Swygert set the fines after upholding jury conviction of the firms on charges of conspiring to rig gasoline prices in 1957 in the South Bend-Mishawaka area of northwestern Indiana.

A 12th defendant, Gulf Oil Co., won an appeal from the verdict of last Dec. 30.

Maximum fines of $50,000 each were imposed on Standard Oil of Indiana and Central West Oil Corp., a Pure Oil subsidiary.

Other fines were against Socony Mobil, $45,000; Ohio Oil, $45,000; Phillips Petroleum, $45,000; Cities Service, $45,000; Texaco, $45,000; Shell, $45,000; Hudson, $30,000; Tornado, $20,000, and Pacer, $5,000.

Judge Swygert said an estimated 7-cent-a-gallon increase cost consumers about $250,000 a month in the Mishawaka area alone.

Spokesmen for Standard Oil of Indiana, Mobil, Ohio Oil and Texaco said immediately they would appeal.

Grant H. Young, Ohio Oil vice president in charge of marketing, said "it seemed clear to many observers that the judge from start to finish considered the companies to be guilty," and the verdict "rested substantially on the trial judge's attitude and certainly not on any credible evidence of wrongdoing."

Only a few hundred residents of Marcheg turned out to see Khrushchev. A strong police guard kept them well back from the station platform. There was no cheering.

Safety Belt Unused In Fatal Crash

VALPARAISO, Ind. (AP) — Police say Mrs. Sally R. Kuhn, 31, of Columbus, Ohio, was not using the safety belts with which her car was equipped, and when a tire blew out at high speed Thursday she was thrown from the vehicle and killed.

The auto bounced off a guard rail and overturned on the Indiana Toll Road, five miles east of the Valparaiso interchange, injuring her two daughters, Cecily, 3, and Tracy, 4. Cecily was reported in serious condition but Tracy suffered only from shock.

Clean Shert Demand Proves Costly to Man

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—Lester Rankin likes to sleep between clean sheets. So he took them from the Lake Michigan ferry Separan, used them in his home and returned them to the vessel when they were dirty.

Judge Donald Gleason said it was theft and fined Rankin $100.

Red Boss Set To Swap Views

'One Cannot Settle Everything at Once'

VIENNA (AP) — Through a gate in the Iron Curtain, Premier Khrushchev entered Austria today and came to Vienna for his week-end conferences with President Kennedy, who arrives Saturday.

The Soviet leader said he is here to establish personal contact with Kennedy "and to exchange views on the main questions that concern relations between the Soviet Union and the United States of America."

"We know that one cannot settle everything at once," he observed. "If, however, one has good will, one can also achieve much within a short time."

"This is what the people want who press for an easing of international tension and for strengthening of world peace."

On hand to greet Khrushchev in Vienna were President Adolf Schaerf, Chancellor Alfons Gorbach—and Vyacheslav M. Molotov. Khrushchev demoted Molotov from Soviet foreign minister shortly after he signed the Austrian State Treaty in 1955. He is now Soviet representative to the Vienna headquarters of the International Atomic Energy Commission.

Khrushchev came here after talks with Antonin Novotny, Communist chief of Czechoslovakia. The Czechs said these talks produced complete agreement.

Arriving from Czechoslovakia, Khrushchev's special train passed through a gate in a complex fence of barbed wire stretching along the Czech side of the frontier. The fencing is arranged in several rows, with a total depth of about 12 feet. Its main purpose is to keep Czechs from making unauthorized trips.

A pilot train of three coaches, carrying security guards, preceded Khrushchev's six-car special.

The entry was at Marchegg, Austrian police were stationed every 250 yards along the 25-mile route to Vienna.

Representatives of Austrian President Adolf Schaerf were on the frontier, along with Soviet Ambassador Victor I. Avilov.

The Kennedy-Khrushchev talks begin Saturday and continue Sunday. The Soviet camp seemed guardedly optimistic that something useful might come from them—if Kennedy is prepared to accept as logical the Russian viewpoint on world affairs.

Khrushchev was smiling and joking when he arrived.

One member of the Austrian welcoming party, security chief Kurt Seidler looked at the blue skies and said he hoped the weather was a good omen for the two-man summit. Khrushchev replied:

"The climate in Austria is always very good."

Only a few hundred residents of Marchegg turned out to see Khrushchev. A strong police guard kept them well back from the station platform. There was no cheering.

As the train pulled into the station, Khrushchev first tried to open a window but failed to do so. Then he put on a coat and stepped onto the platform followed by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko. Mrs. Khrushchev stayed in the train.

Once on the platform Khrushchev insisted on shaking hands all around.

The train stayed at the station 20 minutes before departing for Vienna.

Local Communist bloc attaches who could be reached and the Soviet press in Moscow all voice the same message: That acceptance of Soviet policy offers the only chance for world peace and that the American viewpoint is not only wrong but a bit reprehensible.

Talking to Soviet officials is pretty much like reading Pravda, and that is the way it is in Vienna. Their point of view was summed up by Pravda, the Soviet Communist party newspaper, which said: "The people of good will realize that many difficult problems have accumulated during the course of the postwar period. Obviously they cannot be solved immediately, at one meeting."

hopes that during the course of the forthcoming meeting of the two leading statesmen, the open expression of each other's points of view will be possible as well as the finding of points of agreement and the marking of further steps toward an rapprochement.

"Unfortunately," Pravda continued, "from the other side of the ocean voices are heard which cannot be regarded either as sober or clever."

The Moscow Literary Gazette added that "the political blindness of certain U.S. circles is indeed amazing."

"Without taking reference to reality," it continued, "they advise President Kennedy to continue from a position of strength."

Kennedy arrives on Saturday morning by plane from Paris, and the two leaders will meet for lunch at the American ambassador's residence. Their first talk will follow, until late afternoon.

The talks Sunday will be held in the Soviet Embassy, continuing until two hours before the President takes off in the late afternoon for London.

Other survivors are an uncle, Elmer Strous, Route 1, Kingston and several nieces and nephews.

Services will be 2:30 p. m. Sunday in the Deffenbaugh Funeral Home, with the Rev. Ronald Brant and the Rev. H. B. Drumm officiating.

Burial will be in Tarlton Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home beginning 6 p. m. today.

Stock Mart Keeps Eye on K-K Parley

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock market prices continued mixed early this afternoon as Wall Street kept a wary eye on the coming Kennedy - Khrushchev conference. Trading was slow.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was unchanged at 249.50 with industrials up .30, rails off .20 and utilities off .10.

Changes were fractional among most key stocks but coppers were soft in continued response to the cut in copper scrap prices. Some of the copper shares fell more than a point.

Motors, drugs and mail order retail stocks were steady to a bit higher. Chemicals, steels and oils were mixed.

As coppers beat a retreat, Anaconda was down 1 1/2, International Nickel 1 1/2, Kennecott, American Smelting and Phelps Dodge took fractional losses.

Motors responded only slightly to news of bigger production. Lockheed was off about a point. Other aircrafts were moderately lower.

Fractional gains were made by General Electric, Westinghouse Electric, Commonwealth Edison, Bethlehem, American Tobacco and Pfizer.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up .75 at 696.12. Corporate and U.S. government bonds declined.

Jury on a charge of sodomy.

Bollinger and Stephen Roger Wildermuth, also of Columbus, were arrested May 18, 1960, on a side road in the northern part of the county by former Deputy Sheriff Dwight Radcliff.

BOTH Bollinger and Wildermuth pleaded guilty at a preliminary hearing in Circleville Municipal Court May 24, 1960. They were bound to the grand jury under $2,000 bond each.

Wildermuth was sentenced to the Mansfield Reformatory in March for 1-20 years at hard labor, by Judge William Ammer.

According to court records, the Columbus men were re-indicted by the April term of the grand jury due to defective indictments.

Wildermuth, retaining his plea of guilty had already been sentenced and Bollinger entered a plea of innocent at his arraignment. In the meantime, Bollinger waived his rights of trial by jury and requested his case be heard by a three - judge court.

Tom Renick, Bollinger's attorney, had filed a motion to quash the indictment against Bollinger, declaring that it was indefinite concerning the nature of the offense and that it was unconstitutional.

Yesterday the panel of judges dismissed the indictment against Bollinger. New charges of indecent exposure were filed in the office of Prosecuting Attorney Robert Huffer.

THE court accepted the new charges at the request of Huffer. Bollinger then was tried on a bill of information by the prosecutor.

According to court observers, indications are Wildermuth will continue to serve his sentence on the September grand jury indictment, unless his attorney issues a writ of habeas corpus to the reformatory and requests a new trial for his client.

Bollinger was originally indicted by the September 1960 session of the Pickaway County Grand

Young Humorist Starting Movie

Bob Newhart Plans Own TV Program Too

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The fertile mind of Bob Newhart will be buttoned down to records and concerts no more.

The brilliant young humorist from Chicago is starting his first movie this week. And he and his interlocking corporations are preparing the debut of his own TV show next season.

"I'm the guy who got started poking fun at corporations," he observed, "and now I'm president of some."

He's making his movie bow in "Hill Is for Heroes," in which he will help Steve McQueen, Bobby Darin, Nick Adams, Fess Parker and others win the war. His character will be strictly Newhartian.

"I play a clerk who is delivering some typewriters to headquarters," Bob said. "I get lost and end up at the front, where I'm pressed into duty. I'll have some comedy scenes, but the studio said they wouldn't stop the plot for me to go into one of my routines. That's the way I want it."

The picture was delayed a week, much to his delight. Newhart, who likes to recall the bad old days, observed: "I was paid $2,500 to play golf for a week. That was $1,100 more than my total earnings in 1958."

His income will continue to mushroom as he embarks next fall on his own TV show. He describes it as a variety half-hour, as opposed to a situation comedy.

French War Heroine Is Fatally Knifed

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP) — A woman once decorated by Gen. Charles De Gaulle for her underground work and years later acquitted of manslaughter in the shooting of a young sailor, died of stab wounds on a downtown sidewalk here Thursday.

Nina Leona Butler, 52, was apparently being pursued when she fell through the window of a store. She died while bystanders tried to stem bleeding in a neck wound. She had been stabbed in the breast and thigh also.

Sidney A. Wilson, clerk in a nearby hotel, said an unidentified man stood around for a moment while others tried to help the dying woman and then hurried off.

Mrs. Butler was acquitted early in 1960 on a charge of manslaughter in the shooting of Gary Moretz, 18, outside her home. Mrs. Butler testified she had been bothered by prowlers and thought that Moretz was an intruder. The youth's grandmother lived next door to Mrs. Butler.

A native of Liege, Belgium, Mrs. Butler married U.S. soldier Doyle E. Butler in 1944 but was divorced.

14 Rabbinical Students To Be Consecrated

CINCINNATI (AP) — Consecration of 14 rabbinical students who graduate Saturday will be the high point tonight of events connected with dedicating new buildings at the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion here. Some 1,000 lay and rabbinical leaders are in Cincinnati for the dedication program which will include a speech Saturday night by Labor Secretary Arthur Goldberg.

Thursday night, Mrs. Henry Monsky, Los Angeles, president of the National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods, was the main speaker at dedicating the school's new sisterhood dormitory.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy, to no one's surprise, so far in his Paris visit has given no new insights into his thinking on foreign policy.

He wasn't expected to. Nor is he likely to in his remaining talks with President De Gaulle or later, in Vienna, in his meeting with Premier Khrushchev.

His meeting with De Gaulle has been given far more attention for what they did and where they went than for anything they said — which, apparently, hasn't been much.

They went through all the ceremonial fol-de-rol which has become customary when one head of state visits another: Exposure to crowds, airport bands, wreath-laying, graveside bands, banquet, speeches.

In a short visit like Kennedy's, with a man he had never conferred with before, all the time spent on pomp and circumstance might have been much more profitably used in conversation between the two men.

What Kennedy has told De Gaulle (so far as is known)—and why there's nothing new in it—can be summed up like this:

1. He pledged America to stand

Golden Cross Signals Entry Into West Berlin from East

BERLIN (AP)—One of the first things to catch your eye as you leave the Communist sector of Berlin through the Brandenburg Gate is a gleaming golden cross.

The cross tops the modern open-work belfry of a new church about half a mile west of the little iron curtain dividing Berlin.

This Christian symbol is a landmark for many East German Protestants. They flock there to practice their religion without harassment by the Communist regime.

Lefko Awarded Contract for New Building

Nat C. Lefko, 356 Northridge Road, has been awarded a contract for construction and lease of a new post office building in Stoutsville, according to 10th District Congressman Walter H. Moeller of Lancaster.

Lefko said present plans call for constructing the building and leasing it to the Post Office department for five years. Adequate parking space will be included in the construction.

Congressman Moeller said the build and lease plan comes under President Kennedy's program for the construction and modernization of postal facilities throughout the nation.

The Post Office Department's capital investment is limited substantially to postal equipment, while the building remains under private ownership, with the owner paying local real estate taxes.

"THIS formula," Moeller said, "utilizes the resources and investment funds of private enterprise for needed postal buildings."

Under the program, private industry is expected to invest approximately $170 million to build 2,000 new facilities for lease for postal purposes. If funds are available, the Post Office Department will spend between $90 and $100 million for modernization of postal space in federal buildings.

Massachusetts Shuns Ohio Move

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—Irwin Milner, 44, of Waltham, wanted in Ohio for violation of parole, has been granted asylum in Massachusetts.

A warrant seeking his return to Ohio was dismissed in East Cambridge District Court Wednesday after Gov. John A. Volpe refused to comply with Ohio's request that Milner be returned. Volpe told Ohio Gov. Michael DiSalle that Milner is employed and is needed to support his family.

Milner was paroled after serving a year of a 20-year term for assault. He was supposed to remain in Ohio during the parole.

Church is in the Hansaviertel, a new residential area. Although built less than four years ago it already has achieved quiet fame as a meeting place for believers from both sides of the iron curtain.

The reason is that so long as West Berlin remains free under the protection of the Western Allies, people from East Berlin and East Germany can visit it with relatively little difficulty. The church is nearly always full and often one-third of the congregation consists of worshippers from the East.

Marriages, baptisms and confirmation are performed for people who fear Communist interference if they conduct such ceremonies in their own home towns.

Couples from all over West Germany arrange their weddings there so their relatives in East Germany can come to Berlin to attend.

Many East German grandparents see their grandchildren for the first time at the christening in West Berlin, and parents from the East similarly bring over their children for christening or confirmation.

Newly married couples from the East come across to get the blessing of the church on their marriage.

They cannot avoid the legal ceremony in their local town hall, but in West Berlin they also can pledge their vows before the altar.

Million Youngsters Looking for Jobs

WASHINGTON (AP) — More than a million newly graduated youngsters are expected to join the nation's labor force this month seeking permanent employment in the already clogged job market.

The Labor Department estimated today that colleges and high schools will produce about 2.25 million graduates, the biggest crop in history.

Nearly half of them are expected to be looking for permanent jobs. The rest will continue schooling or join the armed forces or, in the case of many girl graduates, get married.

Seymour Wolfbein, Labor Department manpower statistics chief, predicted that the large number of job-seeking grads, together with the usual flood of non-graduating students hunting temporary summer jobs, will drive unemployment up to about 5.5 million this month.

with its NATO allies, particularly France and West Germany, in defense of West Berlin against any Communist attempt to take it over or shut it off from the West.

But this was American policy before Kennedy became President. He's simply reaffirming it.

2. He said the future of the backward countries in the southern half of the world is the responsibility of the Western allies.

This is no revelation. For years the United States realized the responsibility and has been trying to help the backward areas. Further, it has been needing its allies to do more of the same.

3. He pledged the United States to the defense of Western Europe. But that's exactly why the United States joined NATO in the first place a dozen years ago. So Kennedy is simply restating long-established American policy.

And later this week when Kennedy meets Khrushchev, since he is not going to make any commitments behind the backs of American allies, there may be some understandings but hardly any settlements.

Once again the event surrounding the Kennedy-Khrushchev conference—rather than what they say or accomplish—is apt to get the attention and provide the color.

In short, up to this point in his presidency, except for wanting to give backward areas aid on a long-term basis so they can plan better, Kennedy has hardly broken new ground or departed from the policies of his predecessors.

Local 'Hams' Invited to Annual Event

Amateur radio operators of Circleville and Pickaway County are invited to join their "ham" operators throughout the country at the Fairfield County Fairgrounds, Lancaster, June 17 and 18, for an annual "Hamfest."

The Lancaster meeting has been scheduled to help kick-off Amateur Radio Week in Ohio.

Governor Michael V. DiSalle has proclaimed the week of June 18-24 as a week set aside for the "ham" radio operators.

A family program at the Lancaster meeting will include two magic shows, an antique auto parade and exhibit, cartoon theater, prizes, badminton and pony rides for the children.

Other features of the two-day program will include exhibits, technical lectures and demonstrations and an amateur television demonstration.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A strike in Sidney, Shelby County, has idled 90 employees of a Columbus plant.

A spokesman for the Capitol Machine Corp. here said the lay-off of the Columbus workers was caused by a strike which started last Friday at the Copeland Refrigeration Co., Sidney, one of the local firm's largest parts customers.

The local layoff idled about 66 per cent of Capitol's production employees. The company spokesmen said workers will be recalled as soon as the Sidney strike is settled.

The International Union of Electrical Worker is on strike at the Sidney plant. Capitol production employees are represented by the United Auto Workers.

Free Press Remains Powerful

The attitude of Russians toward the enslaved press of that nation points up a truth that needs to be reasserted whenever faith in freedom of the press falters.

In the absence of a free press the Soviet citizen is profoundly skeptical of government claims, reports Richard Piper, a member of Harvard University's Russian Research Center. Many Russians even question alleged Soviet achievements in rocketry and space, he says.

This attitude is demonstrable proof that lies cheapen the truth and suppression of facts — good or bad — robs solid achievement of the impact it deserves.

No secrecy surrounded the historic space probe by Alan Shepard. America profited enormously because the Soviet policy of publicity only for success led to persistent rumors that others preceded the flight which Russia acclaimed as successful — with unfortunate results.

A free press can be a powerful force in proving the utility as well as the morality of freedom.

A Case of Unscrambling Eggs

In a 4 to 3 decision, with two abstentions, the U. S. Supreme Court ruled that the DuPont Co. must sell 63 million shares of General Motors stock within 10 years — and must evolve a plan for such disposal acceptable to the court within 90 days.

The ruling comes after 12 years of litigation. It was concurred in by one less than a majority of the court's membership of nine.

The dissent, backed by almost an equal number of judicial lights, argues that a stock divestiture on such a scale is an unjust hardship on innocent investors. The decision was followed by a movement in Congress to provide tax easements for shareholders forced to sell under such circumstances.

One argument was that DuPont's holdings impel GM to give DuPont special consideration in purchasing products such as paints and fabrics. But after all stock is sold will there be any assurance the DuPont-GM comity will not continue?

If there had been a clear-cut case, there surely would have been a strong majority ruling by the present court. America is so shot through and through with corporate interrelationships that it looks like a case of unscrambling eggs. The public will wait long to see if any strengthening of competition actually results.

Remarks To Irk TV Cowboys

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Remarks a television cowboy star gets tired of hearing:

"Of course this horse is perfectly safe. He's 20 years old and has anemia."

"I know you hate being called Con O'Leary, but whoever heard of a cowboy named Reginald Van Busted?"

"Put on your toupee. We're about ready to shoot."

"So what if someone did accidentally give you a black eye in that last barroom brawl? It'll only make the scene more realistic."

"I know cows make you nervous, but in this shot we simply have to put in a few. After all, you're supposed to be riding herd."

"Oh, no! Oh, no! Don't tell me the guy's gone and put his chaps on backward again."

"Now don't panic, Con, but your stand-in is sick and couldn't show up. I'm afraid you'll have to ride the horse yourself today. But it'll be okay. We'll help you get on and off."

"Just walk up this step ladder slow and easy, put one leg over the saddle and —oops, he's fallen again."

"I don't know who the fastest gun in the West is, but I sure know who's the slowest."

"In the next scene, just as you are about to kiss the heroine, the horse sticks his head between you, and you kiss him square on the muzzle. So what if it isn't sanitary? It'll wow the audience."

"All right, Hamlet, get out of that velvet dressing gown and climb into your Levis. We've got a job to do."

"As I understand it, Con, the real old-timers gripped the gun in one hand, not two, and generally they didn't shut their eyes when they pulled the trigger. And, by the way, do you have to hold it like it was a pineapple?"

"But I tell you we have to put a little dirt on your face. After all, you're supposed to have been riding hard all day."

"Your valet is late. Do you suppose, just this once, you could get into that cowboy suit all by yourself?"

"Don't grimace when the bartender slides the bottle down the bar to you. Remember, it's really only ginger ale."

"Well, if it makes you feel any safer, Con, we'll let you ride side saddle—and pretend you're only doing it as a lark."

"Stop the camera, Jake, he's beginning to fall again. Whoa, boy, who!"

A Need for Understanding

By George Sokolsky

The Negro explosion of 1961 is so different from other similar incidents that it requires special study. Dr. C. Eric Lincoln, a Negro Clergyman and professor of philosophy, has done a very thorough sociological study of the Black Muslims, the followers of Elijah Muhammad. The Nation of Islam grows by leaps and bounds among Negroes in the United States.

Dr. Lincoln is a Christian but he approaches the anti-Christian Muslim movement with scholarly objectivity in his book, "The Black Muslims in America." He became interested in the subject when a student gave him a term paper which contained the following:

"The Christian religion is incompatible with the Negro's aspirations for dignity and equality in America. It has hindered where it might have helped; it has been evasive when it was morally bound to be forthright; it has separated believers on the basis of color although it has declared its mission to be universal brotherhood under Jesus Christ. Christian love is the white man's love for himself and for his race. For the man who is not white, Islam is the hope for justice and equality in the world we must build tomorrow."

The Nation of Islam is attacking our civilization at its very heart. It teaches hate, not love. It teaches that the Black man is superior to the White man. It does not fuss with definitions; white is white and those who are not white are some degree of black. They want no co-mingling of races, no assimilation, no desegregation. As Minister Malcolm X, a powerful leader of this movement, said:

"We are never aggressors. We will not attack anyone. We strive for peaceful relationships with everyone. BUT — (we teach our people) if anyone attacks you, lay down your life! Every Muslim is taught never to initiate a fight. Respect another man's rights whether he is white, black, brown, yellow or what-not! Respect him as a man. Do unto others as you would have them do unto you! Never be the aggressor, never look for trouble. But if any man molests you, may Allah bless you!"

Dr. Lincoln's book is one to read because one so-called Whites sit in false security, hardly understanding or even knowing what goes on about us. The Black Muslims in the United States have been encouraged by the rise of the independent African nations who come to sit in the United Nations, the equals of the British, the French, the Russians, and the Americans. One vote is assigned to each of these countries and one vote goes to Ghana and Guinea and Mali and even Chad.

While Reverend Martin Luther King preaches the Tolstoyan doctrine of non-resistance, the Black Muslims teach total separation. The Nation of Islam is a moral society which could accomplish a great deal for the Negroes of this country.

Dr. Lincoln makes the bold assertion that the Black Muslims are not an isolated phenomenon. He says:

"In New York City alone, a score or more organizations operate in the name of black solidarity. Their central theme is always the glorification of black civilization and the depreciation of the white man's culture, which, whenever it has been adopted by the black man, has reduced him to impotence and ignominy."

"Get me the blockhead in charge of these pinheads!"

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

IN AN AMUSING BOOK called "The Mad World of Bridge," Jack Olsen tells about a player who was determined to signal his partner that he violently disapproved of his opening lead of a heart. The usual way to indicate this disapproval is to put a very low heart on the trick, but this player's lowest heart was an eight, and he knew his partner would consider that card a direct invitation to continue in the same suit.

What to do, what to do? The resourceful player found a solution. He deliberately dropped his entire hand on the floor, and as he stooped to retrieve the scattered cards, he remarked clearly, "Don't wait for me. I'm playing a very low heart."

A finicky wine connoisseur took unto himself a bride. "She was Wellesley '53," he explained to a fellow imbibor. "You'll recall that's a very fine year for women."

Those rollicking big brothers down Texas have invented a new pastime. They call it Little League oil drilling.

four winds. Unsuspecting victims inhale spores floating through the air. Most mild histoplasmosis isn't discovered until routine chest X-rays show the speckled dots of a healed infection.

But sometimes histoplasmosis strikes like squadrons of ferocious moths eating everything in their path — especially when the victim's young, old or weakened. Ears, nose, lips and throat look like victims of a maniac armed with a paper punch.

Moth - eaten vocal cords talk with a hoarse, weak whisper. No ulcer - sufferer suffers like the histoplasmosis victim with hundreds of punched - out bleeding ulcers in his intestines.

In the lungs, histoplasmosis first mimics a mild virus infection, but as infected spots break down into cavities, the illness looks more like serious tuberculosis.

Like TB germs, the histoplasmosis fungus can be found in coughed mucus. A skin test also helps identify the ailment.

Your doctor can prescribe various medicines to kill the histoplasmosis germs but seriously infected lungs may have to be left in the operating room.

Starlings, pigeons and bats spread histoplasmosis when spores pour out of their intestines. Spores have been caught hitching rides on local school buses which rolled across fungus - laden grounds.

An asphalt playground and an ordinance grounding starlings and pigeons has reduced the histoplasmosis hazard.

Bird lovers needn't ruffle their feathers. Healthy, uncontaminated flying friends are still welcome.

NEW YORK (AP)—The men who buy from the nation's producers and processors say identical pricing is increasing and that this restricts competition in some industries.

But only about one-fifth of them see an increase in illegal price fixing of the sort that got 29 electrical equipment manufacturers into antitrust trouble.

This seeming paradox is found in reports of 1,000 industrial purchasing agents queried by the national magazine of their trade, Purchasing.

They also report price cutting below list quotations is on the increase with industrial buyers finding several ways of getting a better deal.

And the majority approves the government's stepped-up enforcement of antitrust laws and holds the effect will help business in general.

The agents' reasoning isn't paradoxical. The majority holds that in most cases identical bids—such as government agencies are complaining about—are normal and strictly legal. That is, they're arrived at by usual business practices and without the collusion that brings the Justice Department onto the scene.

Producers and manufacturers may be competing actively, even if the price is the same. The sales pitch is: "My product is better and I'm the better supplier."

Here is how the purchasing agents reported on the questions that have been making front-page news and stirring much talk and some action in industrial circles:

Seventy-three per cent find illegal price fixing among industrial suppliers isn't increasing; 21 per cent say it is; 6 per cent have no opinion.

Identical price quotations without collusion in evidence are increasing, say 56 per cent, while 44 per cent disagree. This practice restricts competition in certain industries, 55 per cent believe. But 34 per cent say not, and 11 per cent aren't saying.

Somewhat smaller suppliers from being driven to the wall by price wars in the opinion of 49 per cent. This is disputed by 43 per cent, and 8 per cent abstain.

The government's stepped-up antitrust enforcement is approved by 73 per cent, disapproved by 21 per cent, with 6 per cent silent.

And 65 per cent say this will benefit business in general, 23 per cent say it will be harmful, and 12 per cent aren't sure.

Feeding of Pigeons

Approved by Judge

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — A judge says Louis Dufek can feed the pigeons in a downtown square and let the litter fall where it may.

Dufek, 75, was arrested May 23 when a group of merchants complained he threw popcorn around, drawing hundreds of pigeons to the heart of the city. He appeared in court Wednesday.

"If you have the love of God in your heart," Dufek told Municipal Judge Walter McGovern, "you don't want to see a living thing go hungry. I have fed the pigeons for 35 years. Is it so wrong?"

Said the judge: "I fail to see where a gentleman like this can be found guilty."

Dufek left the court, bought a bag of popcorn and returned to the square. The pigeons were waiting.

Our Vanishing Morals!

DEAR ABBY: Are there not enough decent people left in this country to do something about the rash of filthy movies being produced one after the other? Look at the advertising! There is nothing for clean-minded people to see any more. And you don't dare to send your children.

Most of the Academy awards went to movies with adultery as the theme, and immoral women as the heroines. What a sad commentary on the state of our culture.

The Communists do not have to worry about destroying us with nuclear weapons. The morals of our young people are being so thoroughly corrupted by Hollywood, we will decay from the inside and destroy ourselves first. What in the name of decency can be done about it?

A DISTURBED CITIZEN

DEAR DISTURBED: Hollywood has produced many fine, moral, wholesome movies. But I agree, today it is top-heavy with trash. There is one way—and only one way—to combat immoral movies. DO NOT GO TO SEE THEM!

DEAR ABBY: I am only 17 and have been married five months. My husband says if I ever get fat he will divorce me.

Mrs. Kennedy Sports Lone Paris Fashion

PARIS (AP)— Jacqueline Kennedy forsook her all-American wardrobe Thursday night in a surprise personal tribute to her French hosts and their fashion industry.

To the final gala of her three-day visit to Paris—a banquet in the historic Hall of Mirrors of the Palace of Versailles — President Kennedy's wife wore a gown of heavy white silk and matching coat made for her by Paris designer Hubert de Givenchy.

It was the only French creation worn by Mrs. Kennedy during her visit. Already the toast of Paris, today she was even more popular because of her gesture.

Mrs. Kennedy's fashion surprise was a well-kept secret. A press preview of her wardrobe for the trip showed only American gowns and reporters were told she would wear a pink and white straw lace number by New York's Oleg Cassini to Versailles.

Instead she wore the Cassini number Wednesday night to the Elysee Palace, then Thursday night unveiled the ensemble Givenchy made for her some weeks ago and secretly sent to America.

The sleeveless gown had a bell-shaped skirt, high neckline and bodice embroidered in jeweled rose, mauve and green floral design.

Through A Glass DARKLY

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

A Search for Life's Meaning

THE POWER OF THE WORD OF GOD COMPARED TO THE INEFFECTUAL WISDOM OF MAN

Scripture—Nehemiah 8-10; Ecclesiastes 1:12-18; 3:1-14; 5.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
THIS WEEK'S lesson begins with the Israelites' discovery of new meaning in their lives through the religious revival led by Ezra.

Ezra was a scribe, the first such mentioned in the Bible. There were always the scribes who acted as secretaries to rulers; Ezra and those that followed him were a different kind of scribe, one who interpreted the laws. They differed from prophets in that prophets declared new messages, whereas scribes "interpreted the messages that had been previously recorded." (Wilbur Smith in "Peloubet's Select Notes")

In just this way Ezra about 432 B.C. interpreted the laws of Moses to his people, renewing rites and—more important—the meanings of rites which had commemoration of the time when the Israelites a thousand years before had lived in temporary huts after God brought them out of Egypt.

The new meaning in life which the Israelites found under Ezra was the joy which comes from returning to forsaken religious thoughts, and from recognizing, confessing and repenting worldly ways.

True happiness is equivalent to holiness, and can come only from a close relationship with God.

The first passage from Ecclesiastes (1:12-18), probably written by Solomon, is reminiscent of the famous legend of Faust.

Solomon confesses that although he has "seen all" and "given (his) heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly," he realizes now that there is even more to life than wisdom. Even wisdom must be God-centered to give true meaning to life.

The second Ecclesiastes passage (3:1-14) points out the necessity of fitting in with the laws of God and nature, rather than trying to buck them, for a meaningful life. "For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven."

Ecclesiastes 5 lists many short proverbs which help give meaning to life. Among these is the admonition not to make empty promises.

Most important, it points out, enjoy life itself and the good which comes from the inner satisfaction of honest labor well done. Material wealth—"You can't take it with you!"

long been forgotten or ignored by a people such as ours, busy with the daily complexities of living.

Most of these laws are found in our books of Exodus, Leviticus and Deuteronomy.

Ezra would first read from the text; then the Levites would go about among the assembled congregation who "stood in their place," helping them to understand what had been read. Even the directions to the priests were explained to the people so that the priests would not become aloof or haughty about their knowledge.

The Feast of the Tabernacles was one of the rites revived (Nehemiah 8:14-18). For it the people built booths or huts on top of their homes, in front of them or in the streets. In these they lived for seven days.

TV's Emphasis Is on Kennedy

President's European Trip Covered Closely

NEW YORK (AP) — Television emphasis during the next week centers on President Kennedy's European trip and meetings with France's De Gaulle and Russia's Khrushchev.

All networks are bumping regularly scheduled programs for news specials — some on such short notice that it is best to consult the daily TV listings in the newspaper for the latest word. NBC, for example, will have one of its continuing "JFK" reports daily over the weekend and through Monday.

Still in the current events area is another item of special interest: CBS' telecast of the Belmont Stakes on Saturday (4:40-5 p. m. EDT). This is the last of the "triple crown" races.

Edward R. Murrow, director of the U.S. Information Agency, will be Sunday's "Meet the Press" guest (NBC, 6:30-7 p. m.) in his first network TV appearance since his retirement from CBS.

Vivian Vance of "I Love Lucy" will be Red Skelton's guest star Tuesday night (CBS, 9:30-10), and there will be a special ice show starring Peter Lawford and Peggy Lee on NBC (10-11).

On Thursday there will be a repeat of "CBS Reports" documentary on "A Case of Real Murder" (10-11), and for those in search of a chuckle, there is ABC's "Silents, Please" digest of heroines in peril (10:30-11).

High Court Eyes

Little Joe's Auto

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—It is now up to the Ohio Supreme Court whether state Treasurer Joseph T. Ferguson will get the heavy-model official car he wants.

Finance Director James H. Maillon claims Ferguson has to take a medium-weight car as specified by the state. Ferguson claims the 1959 Legislature appropriated $3,379 for his car, more than enough for the big car he wants with a trade-in on a 1957 model car.

Wednesday the Supreme Court heard oral argument on Ferguson's mandamus suit to clear the way for purchase of the car.

Ferguson filed the suit after Maillon ignored an attorney general's opinion that the finance director lacked authority to block the transaction.

FIRST STOP ON WAY TO VIENNA—En route to Vienna for a weekend meeting with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, U.S. President John F. WCH School Head

Submits Resignation

West was superintendent of the Greenfield Schools prior to accepting the post at Washington C. H. The WCH Board of Education is expected to take immediate action on the administrator's request for release from a five-year contract.

The school head said a substantial increase in salary was the main reason for leaving the Washington post.

Gen. Ike Gives GOP Nudge To Battle Kennedy Policies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has laid down a "clear mandate" to the Republican Party to wage war against President Kennedy's domestic policies.

Eisenhower laid before a cheering audience of 6,000 party faithful at a $100-a-plate dinner Thursday night a battle plan under which he said "for America's sake, we take sharp issue with the leadership now in power."

The former President, 70, wearing a fresh daffodil in his buttonhole, was in rare form. He gave the Republicans a political talking-to that he never could bring himself to do while he was in the White House.

Sounding at times like former President Harry S. Truman — in reverse — Eisenhower brought down the house with a wide swinging attack on the Kennedy administration's fiscal policies.

As he never did while he was in the White House, Eisenhower went wholly partisan and seemed to be enjoying it as the Republican audience rewarded him with 52 applause interruptions. This was more than he ever got with a State of the Union address in eight years.

The former President, appearing heavier, tanned and fit, said Kennedy carries "the hopeful and sympathetic goodwill of all loyal Americans, regardless of party" into his foreign policy moves, especially his forthcoming meeting with Soviet Premier Khrushchev. "History will judge the wisdom of his efforts," Eisenhower said. "But we cannot allow, today, the nation's basic unity of purpose to be in doubt."

Although he avoided any mention of the Cuban invasion fiasco, the former President went out of his way to praise the Joint Chiefs of Staff. The military leaders have been under fire for the role they played as advisors in the invasion.

Without putting it in as many words, Eisenhower implied criticism of the handling of the Cuban crisis by citing some of his own more successful experiences. Observing that Republicans stand ready to consult and advise, he added: "We have had some experience in careful and effective planning. In Iran, off Formosa, in Viet Nam, in Lebanon, in Guatemala and elsewhere we have known — and met — similar crises."

The former President gave party conservatives a lift by bearing down hard on a favorite theme of Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz.,—opposition to "ever-increasing power in Washington."

Spelling Champion's Secret: It Is Spelled F-a-m-i-l-y

WASHINGTON (AP) — If one word can explain the success of 12-year-old John Capehart, it's spelled f-a-m-i-l-y.

Rooting for John as he won the 1961 National Spelling Bee Thursday were his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Maurice P. Capehart of Tulsa, Okla., and his brother, Mark, 14.

"This has been a family hobby with us," explained the father. He's 42, slim, dark and a neurosurgeon. "We often have little spelling sessions at home after dinner."

Capehart said he participated in these parlor spelldowns with John and Mark, who finished 12th in the 1958 national bee.

"John's ambition in the national contest was to do as well as his brother," smiled Capehart. "Quite frankly, we had no idea that this would happen."

What happened was that John, as cool as a prairie night, zipped through 24 rounds of words like "ocholeocracy" and "propitiatory" before spelling down Mary Lukes, 12, Oxnard, Calif., for the championship.

After Mary fumbled on "distichous" by making it "dicty-chous" John spelled it correctly, then wrapped up the title by reeling off "smaragdine" without even waiting to hear it defined. It means of or pertaining to emerald. "distichous" means arranged in two vertical rows.

John said he'll bank most of the $1,000 first prize.

This and other awards will be presented tonight at a banquet winding up the contest sponsored by Scripps-Howard Newspapers in 18 cities and 54 other newspapers and radio and television stations.

He also won a trophy cup, a ruby-studded medal, a trip to New York and a plaque for his school.

Mary Lukes won $500 as runner-up and Karen Grimm, 13, of Reisterstown, Md., got $250 for third. There also were five $100 prizes, 10 worth $75 each, and $50 for each of the other contestants.

Young Baseballers Ready for Drive

Plans have been completed, players are set and managers are primed for the second annual Circleville Youth Baseball Program, Inc., membership drive, scheduled for Saturday.

The fund raising, door-to-door campaign will run all day Saturday with Little and Babe Ruth League participants doing the soliciting. Following the drive, the youngsters will be treated to refreshments, cookies and baseball films at the National Guard Armory, 151 E. Franklin St.

The three - fold purpose of this year's drive is to cover the cost of player and baseball program participants, the erection of two additional ball fields at the Pickaway County Fairgrounds and the cost of two paid program directors.

Insurance will total $440. The paid program directors' salaries will run $1,000 and the two ball fields are estimated to cost at least $750 if not more.

The Youth Baseball Program presently has an equipment and uniform inventory of $7,328, figured at retail price. Proportioned among the program's estimated 450 playing participants, the program has approximately $17 invested in each player.

This inventory includes, 300 balls used each year, 125 bats, shin guards, chest protectors, catcher's masks, pitcher's plates, home plates, bases, scorebooks, rule books, uniforms, hose, caps, batting helmets and umpires' equipment.

Program officials said this inventory must be maintained, repaired and replaced each year. A more than $7,000 inventory to maintain takes a constant source of revenue, according to James I. Smith III, secretary - treasurer of the program.

Team sponsors, of which there are 23, contribute $125 initially for Little League minor league teams and $250 for Little League major league and all Babe Ruth League teams. This covers the purchase of uniforms and equipment.

In succeeding years, sponsors contribute $75 for LL minor league teams maintenance and $100 for all other teams. This is to cover replacement of uniforms and equipment as it is necessary.

In past years, the Circleville Kiwanis Club and the City Board of Education defrayed the cost of the paid program directors. With Kiwanis withdrawal of all monetary support except $75 for a team and the possible withdrawal of support by the School Board, the program is left with a substantial financial problem, Smith said.

ADDED to this is the necessity of constructing two additional ball fields to adequately handle the expanding program. This is estimated at $750.

At no time has any baseball participant ever been asked for a donation before he can play. The program will continue this policy. Therefore, its forthcoming membership campaign must be a success in order to complete the season.

Within two weeks, a final fund drive will be conducted when ads will be sold for a program to be distributed during the Central District Softball Tournament which will be held at Ted Lewis Park under auspices of the City Youth Baseball Program.

"There isn't another citizen sponsored program that reaches as many boys, provides as entertaining, educational and inspirational type group participation or brings parent and son so close as this adult supervised baseball program," Smith stated.

"We of the Program directors and participating parents derive only one thing from our efforts—personal satisfaction. The satisfaction of seeing a boy playing his heart out with everything he's got, the joy he gets from wearing a uniform and the comradeship of being on a team, the smile when he smacks his first hit or makes a catch and the pride of the parents when their son takes the field," Smith continued.

Belmont Next For Carry Back

Wonder Colt Favored To Win Triple Crown

NEW YORK (AP) — The Belmont Stakes will be run for the 93rd time Saturday and it's odds-on that Carry Back will be in front at the end of the testing 1½ miles and become the ninth horse to wrap up the coveted triple crown for 3-year-olds.

Post time for the longest leg of the triple crown series, which also includes the Kentucky Derby and Preakness, is 3:30 p.m., Eastern Standard Time. The race at Belmont Park, will be nationally televised (CBS) from 3:30 to 4 p.m.

Whether the odds on Katherine Price's darling of the thoroughbreds are 4-5, 3-5 or less depends on the names of the opposition dropped into the entry box today.

Robert Lehman's Ambioipois is the question mark that could well cause a shift in the odds. The son of Ambiorix, whose offspring often have shown an erratic tendency, won last Tuesday's Jersey Derby at Garden State by 10 lengths. Earlier in the season he also easily won the Gotham Stakes. But he was far back of Carry Back as the little Florida-owned brown son of Saggy ran to victory deep in the home stretch of the Kentucky Derby.

Lehman and trainer Tom Waller said they would make a last minute decision. "Whether Ambioipois is entered makes no difference to us," said Carry Back's trainer, Jack Price, after sending the favorite out for a five-eighths of a mile blowout with jockey Johnny Sellers in the saddle.

Idle Redlegs Gain First Place in National League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Cincinnati gained a half-game lead in the National League race while the Thursday as St. Louis beat San Francisco 7-6 and knocked the Giants out of a first place tie. Pittsburgh rapped Milwaukee 8-2, in a game called after seven innings because of rain, and the Chicago Cubs beat Philadelphia 10-3.

Milwaukee, given a tongue-lashing by Manager Charlie Dressen after some home play on a bus, now has lost four of its last five games.

Lew Burdette took the rap in this one, and was tossed out of the game after arguing with umpire Bill Jackowski. The flare-up came when Jackowski disapproved of a high-tight pitch to Roberto Clemente—the first Buc to face Burdette after Dick Groat had hit a two-run homer in the fourth inning.

Groat and Smoky Burgess, who hit two homers, each drove in three runs as the Pirates tagged Burdette (4-4) for seven of their 10 hits. A sacrifice fly by Frank Thomas and a single by Joe Torre drove in the Braves' runs before southpaw Harvey Haddix (4-1), allowing eight hits and striking out seven, started a run of six shutout innings.

Milwaukee traded utility infielder Billy Martin to the Minnesota Twins of the AL Thursday night. In his blow up, which followed Sunday's doubleheader split against last place Philadelphia, Dressen told the Braves "some of you guys won't be with us" after the June 15 trading deadline.

The Giants, down 6-0, almost pulled it out in the ninth against the Cards. Felipe Alou and Willie McCovey hit solo homers off reliever Lindy McDaniel before Al Ciochetti came on and got Orlando Cepeda on a grounder for the final out. Cepeda had homered in the sixth off winner Ernie Broglio (5-5). The Cards scored five in the fifth off loser Mike McCormick (5-4), then scored the clincher on Julian Javier's single in the sixth against reliever Ed Fisher.

George Altman and Don Zimmer hit home runs and each drove in three runs as the Cubs won four in a row for the first time. Frank Sullivan (2-6) was the loser while Glen Hobbie won his third.

The Detroit Tigers were held to a 4-4 tie by Kansas City in a game called after 7½ innings because of rain Thursday and retained a two-game lead over idle Cleveland in the American League race. Boston beat New York 7-5 and Washington defeated the Los Angeles Angels 3-2 in the ninth inning on a passed ball by catcher Earl Averill with two out and a two-run pinch double by Gene Woodling.

The Senators were blanked on five hits for eight innings by Eli Grba. But when he gave up his fifth walk, to Chuck Hinton leading off the ninth, Manager Bill Rigney called in reliever Ryne Duren.

Duren walked Jim King, then struck out Willie Tasby. But the Senators pulled a double steal and Dale Long hit a sacrifice fly. Then came the third strike-passed ball that put Billy Klaus on base and the break up shot by Woodling, who hasn't played in two weeks because of a leg injury.

John Gabler, another ex-Yankee, won his second in relief of Joe McClain.

The Tigers blew a 3-0 lead before salvaging the tie with the A's on two walks and a single by Al Kaline in the seventh. Kansas City had taken the lead with four runs in the fifth, two on Wayne Causey's home run, against Phil Regan. Norm Cash homered for Detroit, off Ray Herbert.

Veteran Vic Wert puffed off his first triple in six seasons and drove in three runs for the Red Sox, bringing in the deciding run in the fifth inning. Bob (3-3) was the loser. Bill Skowron drove in three runs with a pair of homers for the Yankees, who collected half of their 14 hits and four runs in the last two innings. Bill Monbouquette (4-5) was the winner. He gave up 11 hits in 7 2-3 innings, including Skowron's first homer—the first he had allowed in 76 innings.

Smith Named Chairman of Park Board

James I. Smith III, 1235 S. Court St., has been named permanent chairman of the Circleville Park Board.

Smith's appointment automatically places him on the Circleville Planning and Zoning Commission which will meet Monday night in regular session. The Park Board is in the process of employing a park custodian to replace Bernard Thompson who resigned.

The new electrical scoreboard purchased by the Park Board recently was erected yesterday and will be in operation for Monday's opening of the youth baseball season.

PARK BOARD members today extended appreciation to the Hill Implement Co. for furnishing a tractor, mower and operator to mow grass at Ted Lewis Park and the Southend Playground while the board's mower was being repaired; also to Joseph and Russell Gibbs for their assistance in the Ted Lewis Park construction projects, including the scoreboard, ball field lights and steel tennis court nets.

They also expressed thanks to Junior Chamber of Commerce members for painting dugouts and bleacher handrails.

Bevo Admits Playing Cage Tilts To Lose

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—Clarence (Bevo) Francis, the former Ohio basketball great, has testified in court that he played with instructions not to win when he was with the Bevo All-Stars, a team set up to furnish opposition for the Harlem Satellites.

The 6-foot-9 Francis testified Thursday before Circuit Court Judge Fred N. Searl in his suit to collect $25,000 on his 2½-year basketball contract with Ted Rasberry, local sports promoter who owned the Satellites.

Francis said he has received nothing on his alleged $1,200 a month contract since April 1959, when the Bevo All-Stars broke up.

1. Card of Thanks

We wish to express our most heartfelt thanks to the many who have assisted us in our trying hour of need, during the death of our sister, Mrs. Mary T. Geygan.

We want to thank the Circleville Fire Dept. and the police Dept. for their help. The Deffenbaugh Funeral home, for their wonderful service, and the Pall Bearers. Especially do we thank Rev. Father Mason, and the members of St. Joseph's Church for their comforting words and a Requiem Mass.

Ohio Auto Racing Returns to Scene

By JOHN F. (RED) PHILLIPS
Sports Editor, Columbus Star

With the holiday over, auto racing in Ohio returns to normal after a week in which many scheduled events were erased by rain or cold weather.

Top result was the winning of the 50-lap Sunday night feature by Jack Bowsher of Springfield before more than 3,000 at the Columbus Motor Speedway. The race had five leaders before Bowsher took over on the 46th lap. They run again there with both modifieds and flying stocks Friday and Sunday nights.

Powell has the modifieds scheduled for 50 laps Saturday night. Sunday afternoon the MARC new cars come in for a 100-lap feature race.

Ohioans get a chance to see some of the "500" drivers as the USAC new cars run at Dayton Speedway on the high banks and the USAC modifieds offer a full program at New Bremen, on the dirt. Both go Sunday afternoon.

Wimpy Yarnman of Mount Vernon won the Sunday afternoon feature at the Knox-Vernon Speedway, and will be back this Sunday when the races start at 7:45 p.m.

Roy Gemberling of Kent was a three-time winner at Cloverleaf's late model races Sunday night when he took the heat, a pursuit race and the feature at the Cleveland plant. They go again Sunday, and starting Wednesday, June 7, will run jalopes regularly.

Lorain County Speedway at Elyria was a cold weather victim, but will have a $2,000 purse for modifieds Saturday night. Midvale, at Uhrichsville, will race Sunday night, the same time the modifieds go at Sandusky.

Belmont, at St. Clairsville, races Friday night. The Atomic Speedway at Alma will run Saturday night. Last week a crash took out the Atomic regulars, and new winners were Dean Knittle of Portsmouth in the modified class and Buzz Peters of Chillicothe in the Sportsman.

Ohio Valley Speedway at Parkersburg, W. Va., raced both Saturday night and Sunday. Larry Brown won the modified race on Saturday and Gene Schuman took the strictly stock event. Both are from Parkersburg. Al Lewis of Zanesville won Sunday's modified feature and the stock main event went to Jim Wright of Marietta.

DRAGS—The drag strips had some good times. The Blue Angel car from Massillon was high with a speed of 152.56 m.p.h. at the Pacemaker Strip in Mount Vernon. The Going Kart from Strausburg was top eliminator and had a speed of 145.50, as 225 cars competed before 2,500 fans. They drag three again Sunday.

Dick Pada topped two days of dragging at Newark's Hyde Park Strip with a speed of 135.15. They gather there again Saturday night and Sunday afternoon, and starting Wednesday, June 7, will have three days of drags each week.

Jim Clinton of Dayton did 134.13 m.p.h. at Kil-Kare Strip near Xenia, but the day's top eliminator was John Clement of Dunkirk, N. Y., who hit 120.57 on Sunday afternoon. They go again this Sunday.

Jones Clips Marlins Again

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The only roadblock the newly established Charleston Marlins have run into so far is Sherman (Roadblock) Jones of Jersey City. Roadblock beat the first-place Marlins a second time in three days Thursday, this time in relief, 7-6. He hurled a five-hitter Memorial Day that broke Charleston's seven-game winning streak.

Syracuse, in last place in the International League, and now suffering from internal strife, beat Buffalo 10-3 under temporary manager Frank Verdi. Verdi stood in for regular manager Gene Verble who is considering his resignation after a run-in with pitching coach Bob Porterfield. The latter was fired Thursday when club officials accused him of trying to take over the team.

Columbus moved to within a game of the top with its fourth straight victory, defeating Richmond 3-2 in a rhabarb-laden game.

Columbus scored all its runs in the first inning and the first one caused the rumpus. Richmond manager Carl Ermer was ejected by Umpire Harry Shedd for disputing his call that Ed Sada had not gone out of the baseline when he slid around Virginians' catcher Wilmer Shantz for the first run. Shantz had grabbed a slow roller and was waiting to tag Sada, coming from third, when the latter successfully evaded the tag and crawled home. John Schaive's single then scored the final pair.

Noble Threewitt has led the trainers in winners at Hollywood Park the last two years with 22 and 28 firsts, respectively.

NEW YORK (AP)—The mother of a pre-teen daughter of my acquaintance has a little problem: getting Suzy to wash her face.

Suzy, it seems, watches the toilet soap commercials on TV and insist on following the demonstrations of beauty care faithfully. She first wraps her "hair-do" in a hand towel, and then proceeds carefully to dab each rounded cheek and the middle of her forehead with a small circle of suds.

She scorns the face cloth as old-fashioned — after all, all the TV face-dabbers use their hands. And Suzy is not convinced by her mother's explanation that the TV girls caress rather than scrub on seren because they don't want to mess up their carefully applied lip and eye makeup.

CBS' bi-weekly Steel Hour has been renewed for another season. That's welcome news because it is one of the few dramatic shows to survive the ratings battle with westerns and private eyes.

But the joy isn't undiluted because the scripts are too often today, stilted and garnished with clichés.

This week's offering, for example, was billed as a "rollicking comedy," and there were all the ingredients for a breezy, amusing period piece. But nothing rolicked — in fact, there wasn't a single laugh in the entire 60 minutes.

The play, adapted from a Stephen Vincent Benet short story, was called "Famous." It was about an aging playboy son writer who doesn't want his children to follow his footsteps into the theatre. Eddy Albert played the father with a leaden touch. Even Dolores Gray, as a 1927 musical comedy queen, couldn't brighten her corner.

Ed Sullivan will present three scenes from "All the Way Home" the Broadway show which won playwright Tad Mosel a Pulitzer Prize, on Sunday night. Sullivan is credited with saving the play when it was about to fold, with an enthusiastic plug on his program. Sports Programs of both CBS and ABC in mid-June will be devoted to French auto races: CBS' "Sports Spectacular" on June 15 will report on the 1961 Grand Prix de Monaco, the Riviera's big car racing event, and ABC's June 17 "Wide World of Sports" will show the famous 24-hour-long Le Mans circuit.

Recommended tonight: "Twilight Zone," CBS, 10-10:30 (Eastern Daylight Time) — Burgess Meredith stars in "The Obsolete Man."

Heart Massage Revives Baby Boy 'Born Dead'

LONDON (AP)—A baby boy, born dead, has been brought back to life by heart massage at London's Westminster Hospital.

Slapping, oxygen and stimulants failed to get it breathing.

A surgeon made a small incision in its chest. His fingers probed gently under the baby's rib cage and found its tiny heart. The surgeon began massaging.

Fifteen minutes after its birth, the baby's heart fluttered. The baby began to breathe.

Certificates for Diverting Acreage May Be Redeemed

Certificates earned for diverting corn and grain sorghum acreage from production this year under the Feed Grain Program may be redeemed by farmers in grain or a cash equivalent of grain, it was announced today.

Marvin G. Steely, chairman of the Pickaway County Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Committee, said county offices are now prepared to make cash payments on certificates issued under the advance payment provisions of the program. The chairman explained that producers who wish to receive cash instead of grain for their certificates may ask the Commodity Credit Corporation to act as their agents in marketing the certificates. While the certificates are negotiable, only producers who receive them for diverting acreage under the program can redeem them in cash.

CCC will pay the producer the full value of the certificate in cash through the County ASC Office if it is presented within 30 days of issuance.

STEELY said if a certificate is not redeemed in grain or submitted to CCC for marketing within 30 days after issuance, storage and handling charges will be deducted from the face value of the certificate. The deduction will be at the rate of 1-25th of one percent per day, beginning on the 31st day after issuance and continuing until redeemed.

Certificates held by producers may be redeemed in CCC-owned grain stored either in CC bin sites or in commercial warehouses, as determined by the county committee. Grain will be valued at the market price for redemption purposes.

Corn, oats, barley and grain sorghum in the CCC inventory will be eligible for redemption as made available locally. Producer redemptions may be in CCC-owned grain in the county in which the certificate was issued or in the nearest county in which grain made available for redemption is stored.

CCC will not ship grain into a particular county or make available specific stocks of CCC-owned grain for certificate redemption, the local chairman explained.

Certificates issued to a producer may also be redeemed in grain put under price support loan by that producer.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—When police arrested Martha V. Tilghman, 31, Wednesday on charges of taking $4.15 worth of groceries from a food market a policeman placed a pair of handcuffs on Mrs. Tilghman's wrists. But he accidentally broke the key off in the lock and couldn't get them off.
